I am Joseph!

The sermon today is a 'First Person' presentation reflecting a spot in time from the life of Joseph. The scriptural record is Genesis chapters 37-50.

This sermon is not intended to replace scripture but to inspire the hearer to be drawn to scripture. In other words, never allow a dramatic representation to substitute or usurp the authority of God's Word. Be encouraged to read the account yourself and cherish the presence of God in our lives through His written word.

While this sermon is based upon the text, it also contains interpreted imaginations regarding details, feelings, and manners of the primary character.
