Deborah:
Prophetess and Judge

Judges 4-5

In this series we are watching heroes who stand _____ of culture.

They have staked their lives on the character of the Word of God and His design for life and purpose.

These champions rise up to mount a movement _____.

Her name is Deborah. She appears in the bible at a very _____ time.

The valued resource:

Bibleproject.com - Review of the book of Judges

Part One: The Events - Just tell me what happened. Judges 4

You will notice that it is a woman _____ of the battle, and it is another woman who brought the battle to its _____.

Part Two: The Reflection - The commentary... what is learned from the events. Judges 5

Let's assemble 5 takeaways:

1. When culture is steeped in sin, _____, Gender is lost and faithfulness to God's design is abandoned. Expect it...confusion at the most fundamental fabric of human existence.
2. You may not change the flow/decline of culture, but you can _____.
3. Lead with..._____. Don't lead with your gender, race, position, economic status. That's the boldest story that our culture needs to hear.
4. _____ do right even if no one expects you to do it. You are fighting the Lord's battle. He is in the battle when you are faithful.
5. For Deborah, the story is not about Deborah..._____. She hears God's call to engage the battle, she gives herself when the battle is on, she trusts God for the outcome, and she gives God the praise when it is complete. ...which truly makes her a hero. You should be like her!
