For Such A Time As This

Chapter 20
Esther 4:10-16

Esther: a real-life _____.

Every melodrama includes:

A hero or heroine - _____

A villain - _____

A villain's accomplice - _____

A faithful servant - _____

Although God's name is never mentioned in the book of Esther, His upper story presence is evident in numerous

"_____."

Lessons:

There's a difference between a co-incidence and a _____-incidence.

Your current position doesn't determine your ultimate _____.

You don't discover your destiny.

Your destiny _____ you.

Questions:

Are you ready for a _____ moment?

Esther 4:14b - And who knows but that you have come to your royal position for such a time as this?

How might God want to use you where you are _____?

The world needs Christians who don't tolerate the complacency of their own lives. Francis Chan

What _____ might be keeping you from your destiny?

God doesn't call us to be comfortable. He calls us to trust Him so completely that we are unafraid to put ourselves in situations where we will be in trouble if He doesn't come through. Francis Chan

Take-a-ways:

Never mistake God's silence for His

_____.

Hebrews 13:5b-6a - God has said, "Never will I leave you; never will I forsake you." So we say with confidence, "The Lord is my helper; I will not be afraid."

Learn to recognize _____.

Romans 8:28 - And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose.

Have the courage to _____ and take a stand.

Luke 12:8 - I tell you, whoever publicly acknowledges me before others, the Son of Man will also acknowledge before the angels of God.
