Part One – Reading the Bible

Ask the _____ questions in the _____ order.

"How does this _____?" is the last question to ask.

1. _____ does this passage mean?

Prophecy is primarily _____ not foretelling.

1. You (Israel/Judah) have broken the covenant; repent!
2. If not, judgment will come, life outside of the covenant!
3. Yet, even in the consequences, there is hope for future restoration of both Israel/Judah and the nations!

2. _____ does this passage mean?

AIM - _____.

Historical Background:

- Northern tribes exile – 722 BC by _____.
- Judah exile – 586 BC by _____.

_____ of the 16 prophets prophesied before the exile!

3. _____ does this passage apply to us?

What similarities exist between us and the original audience?

Part Two – Life with God from Jeremiah

Series Objective: To help us see from Genesis to Revelation that God's Big Story is He wants to be with us, and He wants us to be with Him.

Why didn't they repent!?

They neglected/avoided the _____.

"Why do you bring charges against me? You have all rebelled against me," declares the Lord. – Jer. 2:29

Lord, do not your eyes look for truth? You struck them, but they felt no pain; you crushed them, but they refused correction. They made their faces harder than stone and refused to repent. – Jer. 5:3

If we say that we do not have any sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us. – 1 John 1:8

Satan wants you to be comfortable with _____ and uncomfortable with _____.

Facing the _____ and repenting is not convenient.

But here is the truth, you are either _____ or it is _____.

Repentance is a _____ for every Christian.

Life with God is a constant beginning...failing and beginning again....failing again...and beginning again.

Practical Steps to Begin Again (Repent)

1. _____ the truth.
2. _____ to Christ.
3. _____ up.
4. _____ out.

"I will be their God, and they will be my people. No longer will they teach their neighbor, or say to one another, 'Know the Lord,' because they will all know me, from the least of them to the greatest," declares the Lord. "For I will forgive their wickedness and will remember their sins no more." - Jer. 31:33b-34
